No Instruments Allowed! The vocal band Curious Gage, from Fort Collins, Colorado, has been a fixture in the contemporary a cappella scene for over ten years. With four microphones, captivating solos, dynamic bass and powerful vocal percussion, the members of Curious Gage capture all the energy and enthusiasm of a rock band using only their voices.

One of the best I've ever seen. Simply marvelous!
—Wes Rutt, Organizer of the Rist Canyon Art Auction

People were amazed with their performance and ability to entertain with such excitement and skill. I would recommend Curious Gage to anyone!!!
—Jen Rael, 1st National Bank Holiday Party
